

Explosives Storage and Handling:

An operational permit is required for the manufacture, transportation, storage, sale, and use of any quantity of explosives or explosive materials.

Conditions of this permit are as follows:

- Inspection required before permit is issued
- All required State & Federal Licenses must be in good standing
- Maintain SDS of product(s) on-site
- Pre-plan of site required

During the application process be prepared to upload the following documents:

1. Detailed site map that includes a legend, the entire site area, location of storage set up on the property, location of any equipment and tanks, street intersections, buildings in close proximity, landmarks, and fire hydrants
2. Certificate of Insurance (with Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County listed as an additional insured)
3. Copies of any required State and Federal Licenses (if applicable)